Your PCJX Sampler

The "Sampler" is just a preview of the many things you can do with your IBM Personal Computer JX: from writing a letter, to budget planning, to brain teasers. Before you know it, you'll be using your JX with confidence.

So, relax and enjoy the "Sampler." You're in charge! And even if it takes some practice, don't worry. Your JX can handle it.

Follow the instructions on the next page to run the "Sampler".

- ① Insert the "Sampler" diskette in drive A (right drive) with the label on the diskette facing up.
- ② Turn on the system unit and the display.
- ③ After you see "Hello" on the screen...
- ④ ...press  and enjoy "Your PCJX Sampler."

SAMPLER is intended to demonstrate some functions the IBM Personal Computer JX is capable of performing. It is not intended to be a substitute for application programs which the buyer may choose to acquire independently.
